In a crazy world, audiences are embracing black comedy

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

In a world where high-school students are packing heat and the president of the United States is a candidate for MTV's "Undressed," is it any wonder that TV audiences are buying into black comedy in record numbers?

Oh, sure, black comedy — inserting humor into macabre situations — has been around pretty much since drama was invented. It's a part of our stage heritage, thanks in part to those dotty Brewster sisters in "Arsenic and Old Lace."

The TV shows of David E. Kelley have always been shot through with black comedy — remember that corpse found in a dishwasher in the very first episode of "Picket Fences," and the mayor who died of spontaneous combustion? — and HBO has virtually blown the back wall out of the genre with "The Sopranos" and its central character, a devoted family man who occasionally kills people for a living.

TNT throws a new entry into the mix on Sunday, Sept. 19, with "A Slight Case of Murder," a delicious comedy-thriller starring William H. Macy as film critic Terry Thorpe, a scoundrel who is being blackmailed for a murder he didn't even commit.

Working from a novel by veteran mystery writer Donald E. Westlake, Macy and Schachter make the viewer a virtual co-conspirator by having Terry break "the fourth wall" and address the camera directly. It's a shrewd gambit that goes back to one of the masterpieces of TV black comedy, "Guilty Conscience," a stunning 1985 reworking of "Diabolique" with Anthony Hopkins, Blythe Danner and Swoosie Kurtz.

But while "Conscience" largely took place as a fantasy in the mind of Hopkins' character, "Slight Case" stays firmly rooted in reality, no matter how insanely the story line twists to keep Terry implicated in this "murder."

"Yeah, a lot of the stuff on our show is very funny, in a kind of sick way, but I'm not interested in cheap laughs," Macy says. "Black comedy? Sure. But that's life, the way that you can be in a perfectly comfortable situation, then blam! The ground falls out from under you. Anyone can relate to that."

Macy thinks that audiences these days just don't buy into the hero-in-a-white-hat figure anymore.

"Hey, the president of the United States — who is still a hero to a lot of us — got caught with his pants around his ankles," he says with a chuckle. "These days, audiences are perfectly ready to accept a 'hero' with a few stains."

Peters proves to be ageless performer

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

I enjoyed "Bernadette Peters in Concert" on PBS. I seem to remember her playing a photographer named "Charley" in a TV show several years ago. Am I right? She was so cute and doesn't look a day older. -Alice in California.

You have a good memory, Alice. Peters played Charlotte "Charley" Drake, a liberal free-lance photographer having a stormy affair with much older conservative political columnist Richard C. Barrington (Richard Crenna) in "All's Fair," a Norman Lear sitcom that ran for a single season (1976-77) on CBS. Michael Keaton co-starred as presidential joke writer Lanny Wolf.

You're also right about this ageless performer, who knows the value of keeping both feet on the ground and taking care of herself. At 51, Peters has never looked or sounded better.

A friend and I were watching "Christmas Evil" (sometimes known as "You Better Watch Out"), and I thought I recognized a face and voice as those of Jill from "Home Improvement." My friend says it wasn't. -Marc Black, Cleveland, Ga.

Your friend, to my shock, is wrong. Patricia Richardson did indeed have a small role as a mother in that grisly, low-budget 1980 horror film.

I am sure I remember Tommy Lee Jones playing in a soap opera back in the '60s or '70s. Does this ring a bell? -Gloria in Pennsylvania.

Yes. Before his movie career caught fire, Jones played Dr. Mark Toland on "One Life to Live" (1971-75).

Why is it that reruns of "The Golden Girls" always stop after the episode showing Dorothy marrying Blanche's Uncle Lucas? The reruns then go back to the beginning of the series, but I remember many more episodes after the wedding. Am I mistaken? -Brandy Lynn, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Not entirely. The episode you mention was, in fact, the series finale of "The Golden Girls." The following fall, remaining cast members Rue McClanahan, Betty White and Estelle Getty switched to CBS in a new show called "The Golden Palace," which found the "girls" living together in a South Beach hotel they had bought, not knowing it was a money pit. "Palace" lasted only one season.

What does "M*A*S*H" stand for? -Helen McFarland, Waterford, Mich.

Mobile Army Surgical Hospital.

Is it true that Melina Kanakaredes of "Providence" once played on "Guiding Light"? -Mary MacGibeny, Glassboro, N.J.

Yes. In 1991, Kanakaredes created the role of Eleni Andros Cooper, a part she played on the popular daytime soap until 1994.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Judging Amy
7 P.M. ON CBS

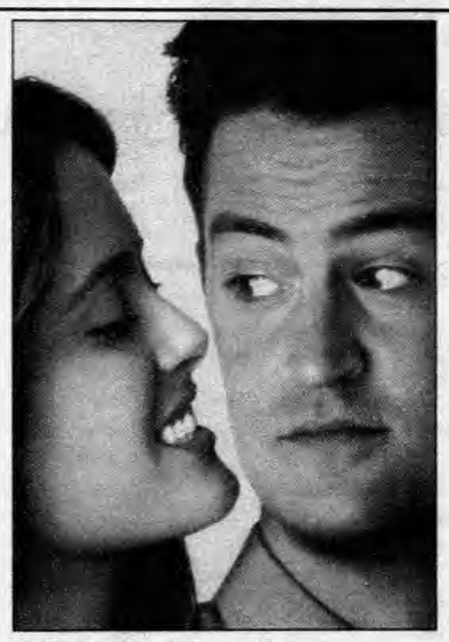
Star Amy Brenneman's ("NYPD Blue") own mother inspired this new drama about a recently divorced New York lawyer who moves back to her Connecticut hometown with her little girl and becomes a family-court judge. She gets firsthand experience with difficult families from her own living situation with her outspoken mom (Tyne Daly) and flighty brother (Dan Futterman, "The Birdcage"). In "The Pilot," the new judge in town deals with a child placement.

Movie: A Slight Case of Murder
7 P.M. ON TNT

William H. Macy ("Fargo") brings a brilliant command of dark comedy to this witty new mystery, which he co-wrote with director Steven Schachter. He plays a morally-challenged film critic who becomes the prime suspect when the lady he's seeing on the side is killed. Adam Arkin, James Cromwell and Felicity Huffman ("Sports Night"), Macy's real-life wife, also star.

NFL Football
7:15 P.M. ON ESPN

In Bill Parcells' world, every game is do or die, even if it falls on the second week of the season. After all, Parcells watched his New York Jets drop the first two games last season, only to see them rebound to win the AFC East. A big reason why was the play of quarterback Vinny Testaverde, who threw 29 touchdowns and earned a Pro Bowl berth. Also making the Pro Bowl squad was Doug Flutie, the Bills' diminutive quarterback. Flutie's task, with help from running back Thurman Thomas, is finding a way to beat the Jets — something Buffalo failed to do in two meetings last season.



Salma Hayek and Matthew Perry
FOOLS RUSH IN

Movie: Sealed With a Kiss
8 P.M. ON CBS

A rising young executive (John Stamos) is looking forward to making partner and marrying the boss's daughter (Jane Sibbett). But fate throws a few detours in his well-laid-out path, which starts him thinking about going in a whole new direction. One detour is the sweet young stranger (Annabeth Gish) whose letter to an ex-lover is misdelivered to his fiancee. When he goes to return it, he's immediately smitten. Nell Carter, Angie Dickinson and Robert Stack also star in this sweet new romantic comedy.

Movie: Fools Rush In
8 P.M. ON NBC

Two lovers from different worlds try to have the best of both in this 1997 romantic comedy. Matthew Perry ("Friends") stars as an uptight New Yorker who wants to do the right thing when he learns the Las Vegas photographer (Salma Hayek) with whom he had a one-night stand is pregnant. Jon Tenney ("Brooklyn South") and Jill Clayburgh also star.

Springer keeps his day job; Short doesn't mind long odds

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Outrageous talk show host Jerry Springer will have the same boss this fall. After much speculation about offers on the table from other syndicators, Studios USA confirmed that the controversial show is no longer for sale.

For a little while it looked as if Springer was heading back to politics. The former Cincinnati mayor, who resigned from the City Council after admitting to paying for a prostitute, had discussions with leading Ohio Democrats about running for a U.S. Senate seat next year against Republican incumbent Mike DeWine.

Springer told the press, "I'm obviously flattered and honored by the interest. It's just that at this time I don't know whether it's practical or possible. In any event, I respect the seriousness of their inquiry and will respond in a timely, sincere and appropriate manner."

Well, he won't be throwing chairs in the Senate any time soon. He says he is too busy for now, but maybe later.

Talk the Talk

Could that mean there still may be a Sen. Springer in Ohio's future?

Comic-actor Martin Short's new show is up and running. A betting person might place the odds of ending up with a success in Short's favor, but don't tell that to him. He has his own particular take on the challenge that lies ahead.

"A part of me assumes I will fail," he jokingly confides, "but I view it as a unique and interesting experiment. I have an instinct that I would be good in this medium, but if America says it isn't interesting, then we'll be on until May, and then it will be another fascinating thing I've done in show business."

It's a great attitude, especially in a genre that recently hasn't been kind to celebrity talk show hosts. Of four well- known entertainers who launched shows last season, supergoofy Howie Mandel is gone, docile Roseanne is on life support, and Donny and Marie are hanging by the skin of their prodigious Osmond teeth. Does that scare Short? Heck, no.

TRIVIA

William H. Macy was the voice in the antiperspirant commercial assuring it's "strong enough for a man, made for a woman."

While brothers Ethan and Joel Coen ("Fargo") direct, write and produce all their films together, Joel alone is credited with the directing.

Martin Sheen purposely flunked his college entrance exam in order to pursue his love of acting. His father first saw his work at a drive-in.

Rob Lowe began acting at the age of 8. Two of his high school classmates were "Brat-Pack" members Emilio Estevez and Sean Penn.

Ted Danson ("Becker"), who won two Emmys for his portrayal of Sam Malone in "Cheers," got his start at the Beverly Hills Playhouse.

The full name of the free-spirited character whom Sela Ward played on "Sisters" was Theodora "Teddy" Reed Margolis Falconer Sorenson.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

The King of Queens
7 P.M. ON CBS

Doug (Kevin James) feels the need for speed as the second season opens with "Queasy Rider." Over Carrie's (Leah Remini) objections, he buys himself the motorcycle he has been craving, but several accidents later, he realizes that the call of the open road sounds like "Look out!" To add insult to injury, he finds himself ferrying Arthur (Jerry Stiller) to work. And Carrie takes up a dangerous habit of her own: cigarettes.

Suddenly Susan
7 P.M. ON NBC

Jack's out, and Ian Maxtone-Graham (Eric Idle) is in, much to Susan's (Brooke Shields) dismay. The new boss wants more sex in the magazine — including in Susan's column, whether she likes it or not. She storms off with a resolution to come back and set things straight. The presence of a hunky new freelance photographer (Rob Estes) gives her a little extra incentive in the fourth-season opener, "The New Gate."

Ladies Man
7:30 P.M. ON CBS

Jimmy Stiles knows what it's like to be outnumbered. He's surrounded by women: his wife, mom, mother-in-law, ex-wife and two daughters — a budding delinquent and a junior troublemaker. Tony nominee Alfred Molina stars in this smart new sitcom with three beloved, familiar actresses: Sharon Lawrence, Park Overall and Betty White. A fourth, Dixie Carter (yes, she's also in "Family Law"), shows up in "Pilot" and is slated for several more appearances. Stephen Root ("NewsRadio") also stars.

Kathleen Quinlan
FAMILY LAW

Veronica's Closet
7:30 P.M. ON NBC

Ronnie (Kirstie Alley) is all psyched to pick up where she left off with Alec after her weekend fling. There's only one problem: He's dead. But before he died, he had a fling himself, with a sweet young thing (Lorri Bagley) who is now majority owner of the Closet. As if all this isn't enough of a shock for poor Ronnie, Josh (Wallace Langham) adds to it by announcing his engagement — to a woman. Kathy Najimy also stars in the season premiere, "Veronica's New Boss."

Family Law
9 P.M. ON CBS

Lynn Holt (Oscar nominee Kathleen Quinlan) is a marriage and divorce lawyer who has become a real expert in the latter: Her husband and law partner left her, taking most of the firm with him. Her efforts to rebuild her life and career with one old colleague (Julie Warner) and two new ones (Dixie Carter, Christopher McDonald) are the focus of this new drama from Paul Haggis ("Due South"). In "Pilot," Lynn takes on the case of a former drug addict trying to get her children back.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Spin City
7 P.M. ON ABC

Heather Locklear joins the cast as Caitlin Moore, manager of the mayor's (Barry Bostwick) senatorial campaign. Mike (Michael J. Fox) picked her, and not because she's a gorgeous blonde. It's her lack of experience he likes, because she'll be no threat to him. Off the job, Mike is still trying to figure out how model Heidi Klum landed in his bed, and how this will affect his relationship with Nikki (Connie Britton). Also in the season opener, "Catcher in the Bronx," baseball fans are outraged when the mayor wrecks Roger Clemens' chance at a perfect game.

3rd Rock From the Sun
7:30 P.M. ON NBC

The birth of Vicki's (guest star Jan Hooks) alien baby after the world's shortest pregnancy has the Solomons scrambling to keep it secret — a tough task given Vicki's eagerness to sell her story to a tabloid. They try to kidnap the little darling but are caught red-handed in the hospital nursery by the intrepid Officer Don (Wayne Knight). John Lithgow, French Stewart, Kristen Johnston and Joseph Gordon-Levitt star in "Episode I: The Baby Menace." Curtis Armstrong ("Revenge of the Nerds") guest stars as the tabloid writer.

Dharma & Greg
8 P.M. ON ABC

Sheesh, it has taken Greg (Thomas Gibson) this long to start searching his soul? You'd think after being married to Dharma (Jenna Elfman) all this time, he'd have started sooner. Nevertheless, the third-season premiere finds him questioning why he went into law — and whether he should stay there. Susan Sullivan and Mimi Kennedy also star in "One Flew Over the Lawyer's Desk."

Wayne Knight
3RD ROCK FROM THE SUN

Will & Grace
8 P.M. ON NBC

When we left our heroes at the end of last season, Grace (Debra Messing) was considering moving out, and Jack (Sean Hayes) was marrying Rosario (guest star Shelley Morrison), Karen's (Megan Mullally) maid, to keep her in the country. In "Guess Who's Not Coming to Dinner," Grace takes the big step into her own place and throws a party all by herself, but it's just not the same without Will (Eric McCormack). Green-card groom Jack makes his own move, joining his new bride in the maid's quarters at Karen's.

Mission Hill
8 P.M. ON WB

MTV was first on the block with a cartoon sitcom about hip young urbanites, but The WB Network's offering has something "Downtown" lacks: producers Bill Oakley and Josh Weinstein ("The Simpsons"). So expect a healthy dose of satire in this animated tale of young people on their own in the big city. Wallace Langham ("Veronica's Closet") provides the voice of Andy French, an aspiring cartoonist who has to start thinking like a grown-up when his nerdy 17-year-old brother, Kevin, moves in. Vicki Lewis ("NewsRadio") gives voice to free-spirited neighbor Posey Tyler in "Pilot."

Wednesday's Best Bets

Two Guys and a Girl
7 P.M. ON ABC

The pizza place is gone from the title and has been relegated to a bit part in the returning sitcom. Last season ended with Johnny (Nathan Fillion) proposing to Sharon (Traylor Howard) just as her old pal Pete (Richard Ruccolo) was realizing that he wants her, too. In "A New Hope," Johnny pushes Sharon for an answer, while Pete takes a trip abroad to get his head straight. Ryan Reynolds also stars.

The 33rd Annual Country Music Association Awards
7 P.M. ON CBS

Your country-music-hating kids might actually want to watch this edition of the genre's most prestigious awards show. Two reasons: 'N Sync and Jewel. The hot pop group is slated to perform with veteran country band Alabama, and the folk-pop singer-songwriter plans to sing with Merle Haggard. Of course, all the top country stars will be there as performers, presenters, nominees or all of the above. Vince Gill, who holds the record for most CMA trophies won — 17 — is both emcee and nominee.

Star Trek: Voyager
7 P.M. ON UPN

In the encore of last season's finale, "Equinox," Voyager encounters another Federation vessel stranded in the Delta Quadrant. Its captain (guest star John Savage), who seems like Janeway's (Kate Mulgrew) kind of people at first, turns out to have a murderous side. The adventure continues in the season premiere, "Equinox, Part 2." Janeway strips the rogue captain of his command, and he flees with Seven of Nine and the Doctor (Jeri Ryan, Robert Picardo) in tow. Roxann Dawson also stars.

Traylor Howard
TWO GUYS AND A GIRL

Weddings of a Lifetime XVI
7 P.M. ON LIFE

Co-stars and real-life spouses John and Eva LaRue Callahan ("All My Children") double their fun as hosts of this latest bridal special. A brother and sister get ready to wed their respective partners in a double ceremony with help from Alyse Sobel. She's a wedding coordinator to the stars, whose previous gigs have included the nuptials of Connie Sellecca and John Tesh.

The West Wing
8 P.M. ON NBC

Writer-producer Aaron Sorkin knows how to do smart workplace dramedy ("Sports Night") and White House stories ("The American President"). He deftly combines the two in this new comedy-drama about a president and his staff. Martin Sheen, who's not a commander in chief but has played them on TV before ("Medusa's Child," "Kennedy"), stars as the charismatic President Josiah Bartlet. His staff includes a deputy chief of staff (Bradley Whitford) afflicted with foot-in-mouth-disease and a communications official (Rob Lowe) whose choice of female companionship could cause trouble in "Pilot." Allison Janney, John Spencer and Moira Kelly also star.

Thursday's Best Bets

Friends
7 P.M. ON NBC

Did they or didn't they? "The One After Vegas" picks up where last season ended, with Ross and Rachel (David Schwimmer, Jennifer Aniston) nursing hangovers and trying to remember whether they tied the knot while tying one on. Monica and Chandler (Courteney Cox, Matthew Perry) search for a sign about their future, while Joey and Phoebe (Matt LeBlanc, Lisa Kudrow) prepare to head home in Joey's cab.

Jesse
7:30 P.M. ON NBC

Change is in the wind for Jesse (Christina Applegate) as the new season opens. She starts nursing school and goes to work as an aide at the university health center under the watchful eye of an imperious male nurse named Kurt (Darryl Theirse). But what about Diego (Bruno Campos)? Yes, she does answer his marriage proposal, but you'll have to tune in to find out what she tells him in "Jesse's New Job."

Chicago Hope
8 P.M. ON CBS

The doctors welcome several new colleagues and one old one — Dr. Geiger (Mandy Patinkin) — as the new season opens. New to the staff are Drs. Gina Simon, Jeremy Hanlon and Francesca Alberghetti (Carla Gugino, Lauren Holly, Barbara Hershey). In "Team Play," Simon deals with the consequences of a liposuction gone wrong, Alberghetti performs a tough heart operation on a child after Geiger refuses, and a priest comes into the emergency room with an embarrassing injury.

Kim Raver and Bobby Cannavale
THIRD WATCH

Third Watch
9 P.M. ON NBC

The street becomes the emergency room in this gritty new drama from "ER" producers John Wells and Christopher Chulack. The lives of New York paramedics, police and firefighters intersect professionally and at times personally as they respond to crises large and small on the evening shift. "Trinity" alumni Kim Raver and Bobby Cannavale star, along with Coby Bell ("L.A. Doctors"), Michael Beach ("ER") and Jason Wiles ("Beverly Hills, 90210"). Eddie Cibrian ("Sunset Beach") has a recurring role in "Welcome to Camelot."

Live From Lincoln Center
9 P.M. ON PBS

Cellist Mstislav Rostropovich is the featured soloist on Dvorak's Cello Concerto at "The New York Philharmonic Opening Night." Kurt Masur conducts the orchestra for the gala, which also includes a performance of Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 5 and a special appearance by violinist Itzhak Perlman. Beverly Sills hosts the two-hour telecast.

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Providence
7 P.M. ON NBC

The season premiere finds Dr. Sydney Hansen (Melina Kanakaredes) and her colleagues having one of those days. First, a car crashes through a wall at the clinic. Then Syd is taken hostage by a mentally ill woman who thinks she has her baby. No wonder Helen (Leslie Silva) is thinking about a career change. Joanie (Paula Cale) hires some help at the bakery in "The Third Thing."

The Jamie Foxx Show
7 P.M. ON WB

The network adds a whole new night to its schedule starting this week, moving this show and several others from their former Thursday berths. In the season premiere, "Just Fancy," Jamie (Jamie Foxx) jeopardizes his relationship with Fancy (Garcelle Beauvais) by claiming to be dating former "Home Improvement" star Debbe Dunning (guest starring as herself). In "Mr. Bo-Jingles," Jamie tries out a new career: writing ad jingles.

Boy Meets World/ Sabrina, the Teenage Witch
7:30 P.M. ON ABC

In "Show Me the Love," Topanga's (Danielle Fishel) parents split up, and she tells Cory (Ben Savage) she wants to cancel their wedding, fearful of a similar outcome from marrying too young. Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) is at a crossroads of her own in "No Place Like Home." She's eagerly anticipating senior year when her father asks her to join him in Paris.

Eric Close
NOW AND AGAIN

Now and Again
8 P.M. ON CBS

Middle-aged Michael Wiseman (John Goodman of "Roseanne," in a special appearance) is "reborn" as a strapping young specimen (Eric Close) when his body is destroyed and his brain is transplanted to a manufactured body. It's a government project whose goal is the creation of supermen for war and other hazardous duties. This new adventure drama follows Michael's exploits against assorted villains and his efforts to get around the ban on reuniting with his family. Dennis Haysbert also stars in "Pilot."

Odd Man Out
8:30 P.M. ON ABC

Being the only male in a house full of women has its good and bad sides for 15-year-old Andrew (Erik von Detten, "So Weird"). Privacy is at a premium, but his inside track on what makes women tick makes him the envy of his friends. Markie Post ("Hearts Afire, Night Court") stars in this new sitcom as Andrew's widowed mom, with Jessica Capshaw as his single, 30-ish aunt. Natalia Cigliuti, Vicki Davis and Marina Malota play his sisters, self-absorbed Paige, rebellious Val and nosy Elizabeth. Trevor Fehrman also stars in "The First Girlfriend's Club."

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Close Encounters of the Third Kind
5:40 P.M. ON TMC

The aliens are landing, and only the government knows where — or so it thinks. Someone's dropping hints to, among others, an electric-company worker (Richard Dreyfuss), who sees a UFO and develops a strange obsession. He follows it to Wyoming and a face-to-face meeting with the visitors. Teri Garr, Melinda Dillon and Francois Truffaut also star in this 1977 Steven Spielberg classic.

Movie: Death Becomes Her
6 P.M. ON USA

The visual effects won an Oscar and Meryl Streep won rave reviews for her work in this 1992 dark comedy. She plays Madeline, an aging entertainer who regains her beauty with a magic potion. But there's a catch: If her body is harmed, things get ugly — literally. Goldie Hawn plays Madeline's ex-friend, who has the taste of revenge in her mouth and a thirst for the elixir. Bruce Willis also stars.

Movie: Selena
7 P.M. ON ABC

Jennifer Lopez stars in the true story of singing sensation Selena, who was about to make the leap from Tejano music into mainstream pop when she was killed by a member of her own inner circle in 1995. Edward James Olmos plays Selena's father, who gave her her start with the family band. Lupe Ontiveros plays the fan-turned-employee convicted of Selena's murder. Jon Seda also stars.

FREAKS AND GEEKS

Freaks and Geeks

Set in a suburban high school circa 1980, this disarming new drama focuses on the sometimes funny, sometimes poignant lives of two teen-age siblings. James Franco also stars in "Pilot."

Martial Law
8 P.M. ON CBS

Sammo (Sammo Hung) is in danger of exploding — and we're not talking about his temper. After helping dismantle a terrorist bomb on live TV, he's abducted and outfitted with a bomb that's designed to go off if he stops moving. An art theft more than 10 years in the past holds the key that Grace and Terrell (Kelly Hu, Arsenio Hall) need to save him in "Sammo Blammo." Gretchen Egolf joins the cast as Capt. Amy Dylan.

Profiler
9 P.M. ON NBC

Picking up where last season ended, Part 1 of "Reunion" finds an injured Bailey (Robert Davi) enlisting a new profiler, Rachel Burke (Jamie Luner), to help get Sam (Ally Walker) out of Jack's (guest star Dennis Christopher) clutches. She's talented, but her approach to the assignment gets a cool reception from Sam's colleagues. Julian McMahon and Roma Maffia also star.
